

Interview with Family Member

You will be responsible to interview a family member that is at least two generations your elder to find out about your family history. You will need to generate a list of questions to ask in order to find out information about what life was like before you were born.

Check all that apply.

T	S	Exceptional	T	S	Proficient	T	S	Not Yet Proficient	T	S	Experiencing Difficulty
		Questions asked are very probing so that answers will give insight into history			Questions asked provide answers that give good insight into history			Questions asked provide answers that give some insight into family history			Questions asked provide answers that give little insight into family history
		Interview provides a good deal of information about your family that was unknown to you prior to the project			Interview provides information about your family that was unknown to you prior to the project			Interview provides some information about your family that was unknown to you prior to the project			Interview provides little information about your family
		Entire interview is transcribed and important highlights will be included in your yearbook			Entire interview is transcribed and some highlights will be included in your yearbook			Interview is transcribed and a few highlights will be included in your yearbook			Only parts of the interview are transcribed
		An image of you with the person interviewed is included			An image of you and the person interviewed is included			An image of you or the person interviewed is included			No images have been included
		There are virtually no spelling or grammatical errors			There are very few spelling and grammatical errors			There are noticeable grammatical and spelling errors			There are serious grammatical and spelling errors that interfere with meaning

Comments: